Commemorating the End of World War II

This month marks a historic milestone, the 75th anniversary of the end of World War II.

In May 1945, fighting in Europe ended with Germany's surrender. Three months later, the battle in the Pacific ceased after Japan surrendered. People across the globe celebrated with joy and relief.

Then on Sept. 2 in Tokyo Bay, the deck of the battleship USS Missouri served as the site of a momentous but solemn moment. In a ceremony broadcast throughout the world, Japanese delegates boarded the ship and signed formal surrender documents. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, commander of the Allied forces in the South Pacific, accepted and signed the agreement. Witnessing the event were representatives of nine Allied nations.

The six-year war was finally over, but many would not be returning home. More than 400,000 Americans and an estimated 65 million people worldwide gave their lives in the conflict.

Efforts quickly turned to rebuilding battle-torn countries. The following years ushered in a baby boom and an era of post-war prosperity in the U.S.

The USS Missouri is now a museum and memorial ship that rests next to the USS Arizona Memorial at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

To our Heritage Estates Residents: We humbly thank all who served or had family members serve our country during World War II!
